

Current Trends in Equal Opportunity and Viewpoints on Proposition 16

A FREE Online Workshop Presented by the Asian Pacific State Employee Association (APSEA) and the Association of California State Employees with Disabilities (ACSED)

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 13

5:30 p.m. to 7:00 p.m.

Virtual Session

Register to receive your invitation.

Membership Info

www.apsea.org
www.acsedonline.org

If you need a reasonable accommodation to attend the workshop (such as a sign language interpreter, captioning) please contact Ralph Black at ralphblack@att.net or call (916) 531-6460.

Reasonable accommodation requests are due 10 days prior to the workshop, although we will attempt to provide accommodations requests made at any time.

Session Overview

It is the mission of both APSEA and ACSED to ensure equal opportunity and to advance the careers of members. Prop. 16 has potential implications on equal opportunity within California.

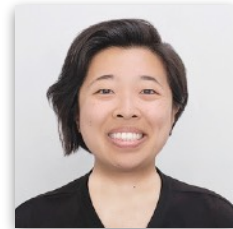

This event is dedicated to exploring current trends within the sphere of equal employment opportunity, and will examine the latest data related to diversity in public sector employment.

Presenters will then explain both what a “yes” and “no” vote on Prop. 16 means.

Speakers

Keynote:
William Tamayo
*Civil Rights
Attorney*

Yes on Prop. 16:
Sally Chen
Chinese for Affirmative Action

No on Prop. 16:
Joy Chen
Californians for Equal Rights

Register Online Using Eventbrite

Please visit: <https://bit.ly/3343d9m>

